Meditation for Worship:

Christian, make your life a brook wherein you may see every stone at the bottom-not as the muddy creek, of which you only see the surface-but clear and transparent, so that your heart's love to God and man may be visible to all. You need not say, I am true: be true. Boast not of integrity, but be upright. So shall your testimony be such that men cannot help seeing it. Never, for fear of feeble man, restrain your witness. Your lips have been warmed with a coal from off the altar; let them speak as like heaven-touched lips should do. Charles Spurgeon

This is the Fourth Sunday of Lent. During Lent we prepare for Easter by observing a period of fasting, repentance, and spiritual discipline. The purpose is to set aside time for reflection on the suffering of Jesus Christ. We have special Lenten devotionals at the Welcome Center. Please take one. We also have boxes to collect your change for an offering to the Society of St. Andrew (the Potato Project)

Our Lenten bible studies this Thursday:

- 10:30 am - The Parables of Judgment – John 11.1-44
- 7:00 pm – The Alpha Course - “How Can We Have Faith?”

Are you interested in a Community Garden at the WELL? If so, gather immediately following the service around the piano to discuss further.

The recipe for the cookies that Pastor Alan needs to take for the prison ministry is posted at the WELL's website. The cookies are due 5 May.
