

9 November 2014 – 22nd Sunday after Pentecost

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today.

In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Matthew 25.1-13 and the response after it is read is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 70

Hymns: Opening #336 Prayer #330 Closing #56

Bible Studies start this week:

Ladies of the Well –Bad Girls of the Bible– Tuesday, 10:00am at the Church or 7:00pm at the Burn's House (203 Chelsea Dr. Forest)

The Book of Romans - Thursday 10:30am or 7:00pm

Our Annual Congregational Meeting was this past week. The Budget was adopted, the Board was affirmed and a Minister of Music was called. A Consecration Service will be at a latter date.

The next Kairos Missions weekend is Nov. 13-16. The need is 100 dozen cookies for this ministry by TODAY!!!

Our Hanging of the Greens service will be 30 November at 10:00am. We will meet after church on 23 November to set up.

There is a box for non-perishable food items in the Narthex to support local families. Please contribute as we seek to help others.

There are sign-up sheets at the Welcome Center to provide meals for families going through surgery recovery. Please prayerfully participate in this very helpful and appreciated ministry.

We are now participating in a new program at Kroger. There are information sheets in the Narthex. See Gail for more information
