Sermon Notes

“Why only a little light?”

Isaiah 60.1-6

4 January 2015

Feast of The Epiphany

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Matthew 2.1-12 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 72.1-15

Hymns: Opening #215 Prayer # 210 Closing – This Little Light

Bible Studies this Week – Thursday 10:30 am or 7:00pm

Today we are dedicating the Altar Candles to the Glory of God.

Please bring your SoSA offerings to the Altar during the offering.

Thank you to all who purchased poinsettias. Please feel free to take them home. Any poinsettias left will be taken to shut ins.

Next Saturday we will be taking the Christmas decorations down. A robocall will go out as a reminder and with the time. Thanks.

We are trying to provide dinner once a week to the Egglestons while Nancy is going through chemo. A sign up sheet for the first two months is in the Narthex. Thanks to all for helping.

Thank you for all the cards, gifts and goodies that were given to me for Christmas. You are absolutely the most kind and generous people I have ever had the honor of pastoring. I Love you all, Pastor Tom
