Lust

22 March 2015 Fifth Sunday in Lent

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Mark 10.35-45 and our response is, "Praise be to thee, O Christ" spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 119.9-16

Hymns: Opening- #83 Prayer - # 544 Closing - #506

Bible Studies this Week - Woman's Study - 7pm - 203 Chelsea Dr. Romans Study - Thursday 10:30 am or 7:00pm

There are special SOSA Lenten Devotionals at the Welcome Center. Please prepare your hearts to have a good Lent.

Our ministry at Otter River Elementary continues this Wednesday afternoon from 2:00 - 4:30. We had 30 kids last week. There names are listed for your prayer. Also, let Pr. Tom know if you are interested in being on the CEF ministry team, too!

On Saturday 28th of March from 9:00am to 11:30am in the Sanctuary, our Evangel to the Prisons, Al Hill, will be leading a Prayer Workshop. This workshop will look at the biblical teachings on prayer, healing, and intercession for others. Several have attend this before with Al and have been richly blessed.

Mark your calendars now for our Tenebrae Service on Good Friday (3 April) at 7:00pm. This will be a very contemplative time of reflecting upon what Jesus Christ endured for all of us.

Easter Lilly Forms are on the back of the prayer list.

Upcoming Mission Opportunities
