

Welcome to

13 September 2015 16th Sunday after Pentecost

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Mark 9.14-29 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 116.1-9

Hymns: Opening- #96 Prayer – #501 Closing – #453

Ladies Bible Study – Experiencing God-Tuesday–6:30pm– Burns' House
Bible Study – What the Bible Teaches ... – Thursdays – 10:30 am

Today is Grandparents' Day. Many of us had grandparents that were used by God to mold and guide our lives. May we all who are grandparents (or will be!) seek to be a source of love and support for our “gifts!”

The new Bible Study outline is on the back of the Prayer List.

Our Fall Festival is less than a month away (26 Sept). Please begin inviting friends & family. There are posters available at the Welcome Center.

Please give information for the newsletter to Glenda. Thanks!!
