

Welcome to

27 September 2015 18th Sunday after Pentecost

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Mark 9.38-50 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 104.27-35

Hymns: Opening- #386 Prayer – #390 Closing – #391

Yesterday was our Fall Festival and while it was very wet, and adjustments needed to be made, we had a great day! We meet new friends, laughed with old friends and learned again how much love is at the WELL. To all of you -----Thanks!!!!

Next week (3 October) is the Out of Darkness Walk. Please attend; you don't have to talk. We will need helpers who sit at the welcome tables and other tasks. If you would like to walk with the “Well Walkers” see Pastor Al. For any other issue talk with Joan. Let's all keep it in prayer!

A New Men's Fellowship and Study will begin October 6th at 7:00pm at the church. We will meet on Tuesdays since the women are tied up already at their study. This will be a great time for fellowship together. Please plan to come. Coffee and refreshments will be here, too!

Thanks for all the birthday cards, gifts, and hugs. I love this church. YOU are my greatest gift. Thanks, Pastor Tom

Please give information for the newsletter to Glenda. Thanks!!
