

Welcome to

29 January 2017 Fourth Sunday after Epiphany

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Matthew 5.1-12 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 15

Hymns: Opening #463 Prayer #450 Closing #454

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this week: Men's Study – James – Tuesday – 7:00pm
Thursday Study – Isaiah – 10:30am or 7:00pm

The Woman's Group is beginning February 7th! The study will be Beth Moore's "Entrusted: A Study of 2 Timothy." A sign up sheet is at the Welcome Center. Please join us for this great time of fellowship and study. See Betsy Burns for more details or any questions.

Rev. Alan Hill was selected by Grace Inside (Virginia's Prison Chaplain Service) as their Volunteer of the Week for the week of January 22nd. Praise God for your ministry in the prisons, Al!

Upcoming Opportunities:

- The Online Directory is up and ready to be accessed. Information sheets for using it are at the Welcome Center. This is a password protected directory and therefore only our members will have access to it. Please see Dave Gardner for more information.
