What Does Maturity Look Like

1 Corinthians 3.10-23

19 February 2017 Seventh Sunday after Epiphany

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Matthew 5. 38-48 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 119.33-40

Hymns: Opening #383 Prayer #381 Closing #346

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this week: Woman's Group – Entrusted – 6:30pm –

Men's Study – James – Tuesday – 7:00pm

There will not be the Thursday Study – Isaiah – 10:30am or 7:00pm

Angie Stephens' Memorial Service will be Tuesday at 11:30AM at Duiguinds on Timberlake with a reception here beginning around 1:30.

Our church follows the ancient practice of reading, studying and preaching the readings of Scripture that are called the Lectionary. This unites us with Christian churches around the world and throughout history all studying the same passages. You can get the Readings for the upcoming Sunday each Monday so you can read and study through the week. If you would like, send an email to jreynolds@piedmonteye.com Talk with Jennifer if you have any questions or would like a hard copy. Thanks.

New Breakfast Time Starting 5 March: 8:15 – 9:15am!

The Online Directory is up and ready to be accessed. Information sheets for using it are at the Welcome Center. This is a password protected directory and therefore only our members will have access to it. Please see Dave Gardner for more information.
