Do You Have Beautiful Feet?

Romans 10.5-17

13 August 2017

10th Sunday after Pentecost

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Matthew 14.22-33 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 18

Hymns: Opening #356 Prayer #626 Closing # 440

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

The Thursday Bible Study has ended for the Summer but will pick back up after Labor Day. Until then we will have one study each month:

Aug 31st - 10:30am or 7:00pm – What the Bible Teaches about Angels

Men's Study – Tuesday – 7:00pm – David

On August 20th, Pastor Steve Arrington, missionary to the Arab Nation in Israel, will be our guest preacher. This should be very interesting and a great opportunity to learn more of God's work around the world.

Beginning 7 September we will start a 10 week study on Luther and the Reformation to celebrate and study the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation. This will be a quick & fun overview and will demonstrate the lively power of Justification by Faith, & how so few people really believe it – even those who confess it! The studies will be Thursdays at 10:30am or 7:00pm. Please see Pr. Tom for more information.
