Why Seeing is Better than Looking

John 1.43-51

14 January 2018 2nd Sunday after Epiphany

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is John 1.43-51 our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 139.1-11

Hymns: Opening #56 Prayer #426 Closing #66

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this Week:

Tuesday – 6:30pm – Women's Study – A 5 week study of Philippians

 All women are invited but please let Betsy know you are coming so she can have enough books!

7:00pm – Men's Group - An Overview of the Old Testament

Thursday – 10:30am or 7:00pm – Bible Study – The Book of Galatians

Joan and Jon Rosin's wedding is next Sunday at 4pm at Our Savior Lutheran Church ((2940 Link Rd) with a reception to follow at Tresca on 8th (724 Commerce St). Everyone is invited. Please RSVP at theknot.com/us/joanandjon. The invitation is posted on the bulletin board outside the Pastor's study. Hope you can come and celebrate!

For those who would like to visit Lawrence Bryant, his address is 20278 Leesville Rd. and the telephone number is 434.239.2000. He welcomes visits but fatigues quickly. Stays around 10 minutes are perfect. Thanks.

With the new year & budget, we are slightly changing our accounting procedures. An information sheet regarding this is at the Welcome Center. If you have any questions please see Bea. Thanks.
