Sermon Notes Weigh It Right Psalm 62

28 January 2018 4th Sunday after Epiphany

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Mark 1.21-28 our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 111

Hymns: Opening #656 Prayer #83 Closing #506

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this Week:

Wednesday– 6:30pm – Women's Study – A 5 week study of Philippians

7:00pm – Men's Group - An Overview of the Old Testament

Thursday – 10:30am or 7:00pm – Bible Study – The Book of Galatians

The flowers in the sanctuary are in memory of Lawrence Bryant.

Thank you for all the kindness shown to our family and to me this past week. Your calls, texts, cards, words, presence and especially prayers have been not only meaningful but essential. I don't know how anyone could walk this past without the support of a church...and, I have the best! Love you all, Pastor Tom

With the new year & budget, we are slightly changing our accounting procedures. An information sheet regarding this is at the Welcome Center. If you have any questions please see Bea. Thanks.

Believing vs. _____

Idols are Light. My idols:

These are not necessarily bad, but they will all _____!

Only God _____!
