

Welcome to

26 Aug 2018 Fourteenth Sunday after Pentecost

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Mark 7.1-13 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 14

Hymns: Opening #199 Prayer #234 Closing #402

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this Week:

Wednesday– 7 pm– Men's Group - Wild at Heart, Ephesians 6

Thursday – 10:30am or 7:00pm – Blessed are the Persecuted

The Fall Thursday Bible Studies on I Peter begins September 6th at either 10:30am or 7:00pm. Hope you will plan to attend and invite a friend.

The Women’s bible study will begin again on September 12th at 6:30 pm. Kim Bobby will be leading the group. If you are interested in attending, please send her an e-mail to kimbob307@gmail.com. She will be sending out several choices for a study.

Please put on your calendar that The Well will be serving at Parkview on September 5th. Please start bringing in cookies and put them in the freezer so we will have enough for dessert.

Bishop Philip Weeks will be sharing on “Caring for Loved One with Dementia” here on September 16th at 4:00pm. Besides dealing with his wife's care for many years, he has also written a wonderful book entitled Living with Dementia – A Caregiver's Journey. Please plan to attend and invite any who would be blessed by this

The Fall Festival will September the 29th from 12 to 3pm. Sign up sheets are at the Welcome Center. We will also have a Pet Blessing ceremony, so your furry friends are invited!
