May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Mark 10.17-22 and our response is, "Praise be to thee, O Christ" spoken in unity aloud.
Call to Worship: Psalm 90.12-17
Hymns: Opening #56   Prayer #460   Closing #463
At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this Week:
    Wednesday– 6:30 pm – Women's Bible Study - "God of Creation"
        7 pm– Men's Group – Being a Man After God's Heart
    Thursday – 10:30am or 7:00pm – I Peter

Our All Saints Day will be on the 28th of October (due to Pastor needing to be at his annual Convocation). If you have any people that have passed since last year and you would like them remembered, please submit the name & date of death to Pr. Tom before October 25th. Thanks.

On November 7th, the ladies of The Well are going to make some new chrismons for our tree. We are doing this in lieu of the Women's bible study class that night. We will meet at 6 pm to begin working and will break around 6:30 pm (when choir gets out) for a light dinner. We will then resume making the chrismons. Please join us! If you plan to attend, please let Gail Everett know so we can have enough supplies and food.

We welcome our new choir and would invite you to join. Their first selection will be sung today! Andrew Foster leads the choir and practices are Wednesday's at 5:30.

There is a trip being planned for December 18th to see "Jesus" at Sight and Sound in Lancaster, PA. There is a lot of interest from our congregation for this and if you want more information please see Pastor Tom.
