

Welcome to

28 October 2018 All Saints Day Celebration

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Matthew 5.1-12 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 149

Hymns: Opening #656 Prayer #389 Closing #447

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this Week:

Wednesday– 5:00pm – Choir Practice

6:30 pm – Women's Bible Study - “God of Creation”

No Men's Group this Week

Thursday – 10:30am – Bill Carr; 7:00pm – Canceled

Our All Saints Day, which is November 1, is being Celebrated today (due to Pastor needing to be at his annual Convocation). The Promise of God in Jesus Christ that Life is Eternal is our Only Hope in life and in death! Please see the insert for the Saints being remembered. If you would like to light the candle, or stand with the one lighting, please come up to the Altar as the name is being read.

On November 7th, the ladies of The Well are going to make some new chrismons for our tree. We are doing this in lieu of the Women’s bible study class that night. We will meet at 6 pm to begin working and will break around 6:30 pm (when choir gets out) for a light dinner. We will then resume making the chrismons. Please join us! If you plan to attend, please let Gail Everett know so we can have enough supplies and food.

There is a trip being planned for December 18th to see “Jesus” at Sight and Sound in Lancaster, PA. There is a lot of interest from our congregation for this and if you want more information please see Pastor Tom.
