

Welcome to

11 November 2018 25th Sunday after Pentecost

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Mark 12.38-44 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 146

Hymns: Opening #516 Prayer #413 Closing #433

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this Week:

Wednesday– 5:00pm – Choir Practice

6:30 pm – Women's Bible Study - “God of Creation”

6:30 pm – Men's Bible Study -

Thursday – 10:30am & 7:00pm – I Peter

Thank you to Bishop Weeks for preaching the Word and presiding at the Table last week. Pr. Tom had a good, yet busy, Synod. Thanks for the prayers. Continue to lift up the IOCC and the world wide Church.

There is a sign-up sheet at the Welcome for Greeters who would be willing to sit in the Narthex and greet any late comers. Thanks

There is a trip being planned for December 18th to see “Jesus” at Sight and Sound in Lancaster, PA. There is a lot of interest from our congregation for this and if you want more information please see Pastor Tom.
