What Makes A Sermon, a “Good” Sermon

27 January 2019 Third Sunday after the Epiphany

Luke 4

Pr. Tom Bryant

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Luke 4.16 – 30 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 19

Hymns: Opening #28 Prayer #391 Closing #659

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this Week:

Wednesday– 5:00pm – Choir Practice

- 6:30 – Women will not meet on the 30th; the current study will conclude February 6 and a new study will commence after we move.

We are so excited about the future location of our Church! The last Sunday in this building will be the 17th of February. It is quite fitting that we will also be Baptizing Audrey Hurd that morning. What a symbol of New Birth through the chaos of Water! We will begin in our new location on February 24th! Thank you for being our Church!

Our Board is meeting with the Trustees of the Church we are talking with this Wednesday at 4:30. If you have any concerns or questions please share them with a Board member of Pastor Tom. Please keep this meeting in prayer as there is much excitement surrounding it.
